“Bless the Lord my soul! And all that within me, bless his holy name!

Praise the Lord, my soul and do not forget how kind he is.

Psalm 103:1

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ

By God's grace our Christmas celebrations were over successfully. I really appreciate those who were involved in the Christmas programmes in the church. Choir songs were sweet and marvellous. Choir masters did it well. Christmas messages were thought provoking. We shared our joy of good news, and things to our fellow beings. May the spirit of Christmas be with us ever more?

Now we are in front of the door of another year. A year full of conflicts and fears is just passing and we look forward to the new year with full of hope, dreams and aspirations. We are in a world of change and uncertainties. As we look towards the New Year, our minds are filled with not only hopes and expectations but also fears and anxieties. We can make future bright and peaceful if, by the grace of God, we maintain the right attitude to life. The psalmist says “The Lord shall preserve your going out and coming in from this time and even for evermore”. Ps.121:8. “You are my hiding place; you will save me from trouble. I sing aloud of your salvation, because you protect me. The lord says, I will teach you the way you should go; I will instruct you and advice you. Ps: 32.7-8. Have faith and trust in the Lord, surrender your lives to him and experience peace in your life.

Let us take some decisions in the beginning of the year .1. Build up a right relationship with God Almighty.2 .Attend the church worship regularly. 3. Create a good friendship with your fellow beings. 4. Give priority to God in your family life. Be a prayerful family and a heavenly home. 5. Maintain a social rapport with the community. 6. Hear the cry of the pain hearted and help the needy. Let us be inspired with these decisions.

May God bless you abundantly in wealth and Holy Spirit? Thanks for your prayer, love and fellowship you have given us. I wish you the blessings of the New Year. May the peace of God be with you. Let us go forward holding our hands together as a church.

With love and prayers,

Yours in Christ's service

Rev. Sam John
