From the Vicar's Desk....

June : 2010
Issue No : 54

Once a man came to a Sadhu and said "I have learnt to imitate your way of speaking. If anyone listens to me with closed eyes, he will say it is you the Great Sadhu Who is speaking. Pray, give me your shirt, dhoti and cap, I shall wear them and become the Great Sadhu. Sadhu said to him - "First Answer my question. If a man wears a sari does he become a woman? "No,never, said the man.

Again the Sadhu asked - "If a woman wears a dhoti does she become a man?"No, at any cost no, said the man. Then the Sadhu said - How can you, by wearing a Sadhu's Clothes become a Sadhu? He continues to tell the man that, he could not become a Sadhu, until his heart became first, a home of longing and love – Longing for the Lord and love for all who suffer and are in pain. "As a deer longs for flowing streams, so longs my soul for thee O God"

(Psalm 42:1)

In the month of August the regional family conference will take place, I request you to participate in it. It will be a time of prayer, study and fellowship.

Yours in Christ

Rev. Varghese Mathew
